TERRE HAUTE, IND. WEDNESDAY ..... JANUARY 4

been made to get up the costumes, I con-IT Up to the hour on which the row cluded that some of our sober-minded cit about Helper's book was commenced in izens would undergo such a metamorpho-Congress by J. B. Clark of Missouri, says sis that the natives would be astonished. the N. Y. Tribune, there had not been a as well as amused at the appearance of for general circulation. "A bare thousand Well, after we, who had arrived early at haps half distributed to persons supposed after the audience had signified the same rapidly. Of the Compend we are sending "Some Folks' Song," (comic,) was very able to effect. To be sure most peoout 500 copies per day, and hope soon to good. The musicians were loudly applant ple fail in such enterprises, but your increase the number to 1,000. We cannot ded. After the male portion of the audi case may be an exception. send it by mail without paying the post- ence had clapped their hands, stamped age (S cents) in advance, and we cannot upon the floor and whistled long enough afford to pay that for those who send us to deafen us, the singers reappeared, and On the receipt of the foregoing, 25 cents for a copy, as that would subject gave us more music of the same sort. "I Mr. Shaw addressed the following eus to positive loss on each copy mailed .- Want a Wife," was well acted, and was pistle in reply. Mr. Connolly, we But we beg every friend of light to procure very funny. As far as music was concern- take it, has not made a very enviable If it recommends treason, murder, or any highly. The audience were somewhat dis- city: thing of the sort, and then judge of the appointed in not hearing Prof. Auton, truthfulness of the Pro-Slavery oracles, in whose violin, at any musical entertain or out of Congress, by the test of their ve- ment, is a great acquisition. racity thus afforded. If they are found to In the variety and beauty of the ladies' lie habitually, persistently, abominably, costumes, the Old Folks surpassed Father ous about this book, they will not be likely to Kemp's Troupe. tell the truth in cases where they are not | There were several tailors, milliners and be forgotten, is not addressed to slaves nor ally induces your correspondent to attend the fight." Your honor may have some ed to take to the middle of the street. to negroes of any sort. Its basis is a col- public places of amusement-namely, to correspondents who take delight in these lection of Statistics, mainly drawn from take items. steadily impoverishes and condemns to a several feet too short and as many yards state of semi-barbarism. The value of the too narrow for the present styles, yet they work inheres in these indisputable facts. were much admired. Should not be at all down the Multiplication Table. Mr. Hel- complete revolution in female attire, as one mental to the Non-Slaveholding Whites or Concert. the South-a class more numerous than the slaveholders and slaves together; and hat they ought to organize and combine to root it out. And here is just where it touches the staveholders on the raw. They know that their talk about its exciting the slaves (not more than one in fifty of whom can read) to insurrection, massacre, &c., is all humbug; but they do greatly fear a moral insurrection of the Poor Whites .- | the Their froth and fury is intended to excite their tools to lynch and murder whoever shall venture to circulate this work among the Poer Whites of the South, or that por tion of them who can read. Yet, while there is possibly a page in all of the Compend rather strongly expressed, it is not nearly so "incendiary" as the rantings of Thomas Jefferson against Slavery.

IT The Cincinnati Gazette, in its article on "Indiana Affairs," has the following:

good in view, has met the opposition of our Supreme Court. By the most shallow reasoning, the most effectual temperance law was declared unconstitutional; a system | fellowing: the noblest ornament of the State, was an. Haute, Alton and St Louis Railroad, our mits the fact." mibilated, and our Constitution, bad enough | important connecting road on the West, To the same effect, Mr. James S. Thayer at first, made ten-fold more intolerable - by the freshets at the beginning of the year said: Having destroyed what was good, the seriously affected the business of both . Now, will you tell me what there is for law limiting the rate of interest.

"Heretofore our last Judges, such as Da- the business of both, the coming year. vid McDonald, and other Republicans, Our revenue has also been somewhat dehave held that no evasion of the interest creased, in consequence of the State Fair law could be recognized as legal. The being held the past year in the South part most ingenious devices for avoiding it of the State, and remote from the countles were often resorted to, but were promptly tributary so the busines of the read; had cently a decision has been made by the the capital of the State, our revenue would mish Huestis. The evidence shows that at a cost to us of twelve hundred and sev renceburg, and stated to him that he want- es us all the facilities of this great agent in ed to raise some money, and proposed to railway operatoins. The few week sell him a bill on the firm. They went to that it has been in operation, has full de-Vail's house, where the bill was drawn, monstrated its utility in expediting the dated, at Cincinnati, and was there ac- business of the road. cepted and endorsed by Vail, and made Jointly with the Louisville, New payable at the Branch at Lawrenceburg of bany and Chicago Railroad, there has been the Bank of the State. The interest was erected at the crossing of that road with deducted, being at the rate of 24 per cent. ours, a freight and passenger depot, amper annum. Here was a fictitious bill, and this miser. fic between the two roads.

at the expense of the many.

able evasion of the interest law is decided For the sum of ten thousand dollars, we by our Supreme Court to have been a legal have purchased about five acres of land transaction. If it had been a genuine bill, adjoining the depot grounds at Terre Haute playing itself in a variety of wats. The different to the approach of the Dog days the only legal discount could have been 6 were more room was required for addition- Richmond Whig is fortunate in its corres which are expected next August O! emotion than he had before manifested: where He only knew that the flood came per cent. interest, and the difference in ex- al tracks or sidings.

change between Lawrenceburg and Cincin- The relaying the road with new ties has the wisdom of his day was folly, compared nati, yet the discount is at the rate of 24 been completed; one hundred tons of new with the following: per cent. This decision however, is true rails have been laid, and a new coat of bal to Democratic affinities, which, in this lasting put on the road bed. The stone To the Editor of the Whig : State, adheres to the speculator against the masonry of all bridge abutments, wing- Seward's trip to Europe signifies more rights and welfare of the people. It was walls, culverts, and drains have also been than a disposition to evade the consequenthis Democracy which passed the law completed. We have also built two addichartering the Bank of the State, by which tional water stations, making the supply fernal and diabolical machinations to dea few were enabled to monopolize the stock of water on the line of the road ample. A molish and uproot this glorious fabric of of the Bank, and to hold extraordinary new side track has been laid at Staunton, chartered privileges for twenty years, with for the accommodation of the coal business; rander now his schemes of disunton, murno power reserved to the General Assem also one at Greencastle, for the convenience der and destruction to the South. Perhaps bly to alter, or repeal the charter. And of loading stock. The fencing has been he is bargaining away the South for Cananow the iniquity is completed by a decis thoroughly repaired, and is now more perion which will enable the Bank, and all feet than at any previous time. The ma- abip of England, to be cultivated with brokers in connection with it, to receive chinery and rolling stock have been kept manumitted alare labor, for England's any amount of interest that they may up, and is in perfect order. The trains choose to exact from the necessity or im- have been run with regularity, and, as Court there is no foretelling what his deprudence of borrowers. The Indiana State usual, we have been without accidents lusive sophistry may not do with the will-Journal estimates that those in this State | -- no injury has been sustained by person ing hearts of Exeter Hall. who use the currency of Illino's and Wis- have discharged their several duties with or property. The officers and employees sonsin, will lose a half million of dollars promptness and fidelity. annually by the 2 per cent. discount which that Bank exacts on this currency. Robes

"SET HIM AGAIN."-The way the Depierre, when leader of the Paris mob-the mocracy use the Union after they have dis sans culatte-was the most exquisite dandy solved it reminds the Indianapolis Journal ion. The two Houses of Congress are the in his dress that Paris contained; so Indi of the way an affectionate widow used the focal point of these treasonable utterances. rounded us with a sumptuous feast of the first commanded was named Thornton. He hastened to the spot where they layand Democracy, professing to act for the body of her drawned husband. It had people, are found the ready advocates of been in the water until the cels had eaten such a meeting was needed, some simple dance; and we could not help but admire She was some years younger than myself; on, and presently he found two more dead but every measure that makes the rich richer their way into it, and when it was brought minded people gathered an assembly. Of to her with the information that about a course, it was broken up in a row. The the princely manner in which Mr. Hubbs IF Gov. Corwin said a good thing the bushel of eals had been got out of it, she eadly remarked that "they had better set Whether the tune was Hail Columbia, or other day, when breakfasting at Brown's the old man again." The Democrats find a the Rogue's March, the telegraph has not Hotel in Washington. The conversation wad of offices in the Union they have kill turned upon the nomination of Gen. Scott, ed, so they set the dead body at every the title deeds of their own souls, consent at the Union meeting in New York. In election, and it makes a capital trap. reply to the question how it would be re-

Yes, we presume there have been a great many cases of scarlet fever here -our city

Spicy Correspondence between May-or Connelly and the Democratic "Rebeis" at Indinapolis. Naturally of a musical turn of mind, and

For the Expagre.

Old Folk's Concert.

knowing of no more agreeable manner to spend an evening. I concluded to avail myself of the invitation extended to me by one of the members of the Musical Association, to attend the Old Folks' Concert.

The programme was rather attractive, and adging from the preparations that had

Capital stock of the Company to .... $1.28'.450 @

2d 6 " 69,072 50-137,895 00-159,967

Surplus Earnings..... 9 02.187

Of which there has been expended.

and not charged to Current Expen-

And the Expenditures have been, vir

Operating Expenses, ..... $165 560 56

and reducis gibe amount of Bonds to 230,100 to

(From the Indianapolis Journal.) Some days ago several Irish Demorats of this city addressed a letter to Mr. Connolly, Mayor of Lafavette, who s a Democrat and an Irishman, asking him to visit this city and address his fellow countrymen and Demograts. The following is his answer: MAYOR'S OFFICE, Lafayette, Ind.

December 15, 1859. GENTLEMEN: Your letter of the 13th inst., relating to local political grievances, and inviting me to address you single copy of the cheap Compend issued some of their friends and acquaintances, on the subject, sent through a Republcan channel has just reached me .had been printed for specimens, and per- the hall, had waited till we were tired, and Whether you intend to run a rig on me or not I do not know, and it makes likely to take an interest in the work; but fact several times by slapping of hands no particular difference, as my answer we doubt that even a poor hundred of these and other demonstrations of imparience would be the same in either case, and had ever been read. Those who under the singers, some of whom were the cos that as far as I am concerned you must took to give it a general circulation were tume of the Elizabethian period, appeared "skin your own skunks" and if you IT it is said that the Judgeship of the doubting their ability to do it, until Clark upon the field of action. The opening think you can do so to better advan- Court of Claims, made vacant by the death & Co. came to their aid, and at once put a hymn was done to dinstem, (see Musical tage in the Republican than in the of Judge Blackford, will be given to Mr. new face on the matter. The publisher Review for definition of the term.) The Democratic camp, you had better get Jas. Hughes, of Ind., a Lecompton mem must have sold five thousand copies of the duett, "Say Where do Summer Roses in there at once, with your "hind feet" original work at 50 cents to $1 each, ac. Bloom," was beautiful, and sung in such all booted and spurred for the fight .-cording to the style, and is still selling it a manner as to give general satisfaction. There is no telling what you may be

Your obedient servant,

JOHN CONNOLLY.

INDIANAPOLIS, Dec. 16, 1859. Hon. Jupus Consolly-Sir : Yours of except four ! the 15th has this day come to hand, and permit me to say, of all the documents that ever I read, this is the most scurril a flaming prefix to his name as "Hon." steamboat deck hand phraseologies, but I de not appreciate them.

city, why not signify it by saying yes or no, and not insult us?

You might as well undertake to argue surprised if before long, there would be a you to this place; not, however, because we the Commissioners of the U. S. Court of The ship lay upon the water like a dead Yes he had seen it; and he knew it must North Sez sailors had told, that opportunity to collect their wearing appa expected that you were more eloquent than some who will address our meeting, but Claims. per shows that Slavery is especially detri- of the practical results of the Old Folks' simply because we thought that your presene- would stimulate our people to action is the only step to advance the Democracy D'We have as usual the Report of Terre f this city, and cement them together.

Haute and Richmond Rail Road, for the year, ending Nov. 30th-and make the fol- this city, but foriunately they are a valuable gift of paintings, &c , donated It was a puff of which Lester gave pected must leave their homes and prop lowing extract from the Report of the Sec. few and far between. We did not think at the time of our inviting you that we sho'd have to say of you, as Casar did of Brutus The presentation meeting was held at the During the year five thousand of the "Et tu Brute

Company's Bonds have been surrendered, I have carefully filed away your letter fair and Stock issued for the same-increasing future day rise against you, honored sir.

JOHN P. SHAW. for future reference, which may at some Argregate of Stocks and Bonds. $1,6:1,450 to .sys, "Ex-Gov. Washington Bunt soul coldest weather we have had this winter. the Gross Earnings of this year is ..... $357,297 85 the Union-savers that the Republican par- Since writing the above, we have disty had no longer a right to exist, because covered that there was little more of the ..... 9 574 43-175,142 99 its work was all done. Hear him:

4 ing practical question. It is no longer .that it must be from causes too powerful to hold: be controlled by the efforts of peliticians "Everything, almost, that has public For the folling purposes viz. $ 1,217 81 ed by the repeal of the Missouri Compre-From the General Report we extract the There is no Territory belonging to the Union in which Slavery can be profitably of graded schools, that was fast becoming The damages sustained by the Terre established. Every reflecting man in the Court now seeks to legalize wrong, and by roads. We are satisfied that the improved a party, passed solely on Anti-Slavety to Shaw. Of course, our neighbor of the life-lines swayed plunged into the hissing sea, and the iron Had she been murdered by these wretches. a recent decision has utterly destroyed the condition and now energetic management oppose, to fight against? Not, certainly, Journal is perfectly impartial in his notice of the highest o of that road will tend to the increase of that contest is ended." [Applause]

sive, but for the fact that, on the same day, column. the Hen Otto R. Singleton, M. C. from were often resorted to, but were promptly tributary so the business of the North least a league away and yet here are the for such Maurice Lester now felt himself of presumptive M C's in the Representation of presumptive M C's in the Representation bolders of the North least a league away and yet here are the for such Maurice Lester now felt himself of presumptive M C's in the Representation of presumptive M

Supreme Court, which legalizes the most have been several thousand dollars more. of the South will be shut out from the ter- viz: shallow and obvious evasion of this law. We, have in connection with the "West ritories acquired by the common blood and The case is that of John B. Vail vs. Jere- ern Union Telegraph Company," erected treasure of the country, and eke out a mis-Vail, a member of the firm of Bates, Neil enteen dollars and eighty cents, a telegraph dissolution of the Union. We must have & Vail,' met Huestis in the street of Law- along the line of the road, which furnish- expansion, inside of the Union if we can, but outside of it if we must. [Applause of E J. Peck, President and Superinten-from the Democratic benches ' Which of these averments are we to be- Treasurer. lieve? Mesers. Hunt and Thayer are hardly yet within the pale of the great party now and usually controlling the Federal Government; Mr. Singleton is in full communion with, and has always belonged to -more territory-must have it-will have ply large accommodate the increasing traf it or dissolve the Union. Is he not in a pondents. Solomon was reputed wise, but Tempores! Oh Julips!!

ces of the foray at Harper's Ferry Be as sured that he is there, engaged in his inliberty from base to belfry. He knows full well that it would be annihilation to surda-that he may rule a northern confeder. acr-and put the South under guardianbenefit. Seward would rejoice at such an event. Having gained access to England's

South only, threatens to dissolve the Un- hotel, where attentive waiters quickly suramid the seering strains of martial music. guests. informed us. Could hypocrisy further go? with good hotels as Terre Haute. No ta How long will Northern men, who hold bles are more profusely fornished. to perform service and labor for the South

The Vigo Court of Common Pleas commenced its winter term on Monday

17 The weather is growing milder in Il The County Treasurer has been engaged for the last two days to selling lands for delinquent taxes.

---17 Prof. Moore's Graded School reppen ed on Monday with its full compliment of happy loveniles.

IF Hog slaughtering in this city is we expect to be able to give the exact numher of hogs packed here during the season.

17 A large number of our cuizens kept open houses on Manday for New Year's calls, and the day passed off quietly and ber of the last Congress.

A Defaulter.

N. Y. Tribune. Who is the man?

LF Douglas in Hendricks county is shead of all competition. According to neighbors successively to read it, and see mental pieces cannot be spoken or too toward his fellow-countrymen of this ocratic meeting in that county appointed five delegates to the 11th of January State Convention which were all for Douglas

"Via media cet tutissima," says the poet, I did not think that a man having such the middle of the streets. The side walks stations. "This calm can't last a great far off, upon a buge sea, with her arms fair, what is your name?" manton-makers present, who, I suppose, pression of "Skin your own skunks" with men, such as Democrats, Abolitionists and to do; for I am sure there will be need of ten seen her in my sleeping dream! "Wolfgang!" repeated Lester, with a . "Mr. Helper's "Crisis," it must never were there for the same reason that gener- your "hind feet all booted and spurred for Disunionists walk. We we were compell having them close before the coming of an . At this point the captain was cut short; start the last U. S. Census, calculated to prove Although the ladies were not perambu- As a gentleman, if you do not wish to ington city on Saturday evening last, in coming; so they went at work and secured "I think it is a light, sir," replied Par- being of flesh and blood, like other men. that Slavery is a curse to the South, which it lating pyramids, and their dresses were respond to the call of the people in this the 74th year of his age. Judge Blackford was for more than thirty years one of the you name more conspicuous by inviting and at the time of his death, was one of Ten o'clock came, and still not a breath, - sir?"

17 A delegation from Relief Fire Co. No. in the assertion of their own rights, which I, of Indianapolis, visited this city on Sat. the boy struck five bells. urday, as the guests of the Northern Lib-We have a few more of your stamp in crty Co. No. 3. They were the bearers of to the 3's by the Indianapolis company .-

Cold.-On Saturday morning the mercury stood at 12 degs. below zero at 6 o' Doctors Direct -The N. Y. Tribune clock. This is we believe by 7 degs, the same sort left; Sunday and Monday rival-

IF Lingle, of the Lafayette Courier, thus Kansas is free, as many of us maintained aunounces a slight increase in his house-> babies this morning! Lafayette and the Steam Press against the world !'

Railroad, held Monday, January 2d, the H. Ross, D. Deming, E. J. Peck, Chas. erable existence confined to our present Wood, C. Rose, W. K. Edwards, F. Nip limits, I tell you you may prepare for the pert, W. H. Thornburgh, Jas. Farrington.

productive of the greatest Ice crop ever produced in this region. We saw speci mens of Ice yesterday, which had been cut it. He says that Slavery wants expassion by Lew Hager, and which had been form- and would probably have walked across ed in three days. The blocks were 2 feet square and 74 inches thick, and was so through it when standing on its edge. IT The "chivalry" of Virginia is dis- The sight of it rendered us perfectly in-elected for the ensuing six months, on Saturday night, by Terre Hante Lodge No. 51, 1 O. O. F.

J. N. Silverthorn, N. G. R. A. Morrie, V. G. A. B. Crane, See N. W. Conn. Per Sec James Hook, Treas.

A. R. Miller, & Rep. to G. L. J. H. Turner. W. S. Clift, Trustees.

H. D. Scott, The installation will take place on Sat urday night next. The Auditing Committee meets on Thursday night.

sist the insinuating politeness of that accommodating young gentlemen who as ists me at school. But some of those who sible. After toiling over slippery, slimy Uxiox Savrag Down Socru .- What a in doing the honors at the Terre Haute cared for me came to see me, and it was rocks, and cruel, tearing crags, until his humiliating commentary upon the Union- House, therefore at I e'clock on New Year's finally arranged that I should go to sea - clothing was all torn, and his firsh broused cent attempt to hold a meeting on that sub- day we found ourself seated at the table in ect in Washington! The South, and the the spacious dining room of that palatial Right there, under the capitel, richest and rarest delicacies. Everything the sweetest, purest, and loveliest creatures arms—but he found no signs of life where, above all places in the country, was in the best style and greatest abunthat ever graced this poor life of earth - With a sad, heavy heart, Lester passed dinner furnished on Sunday last, by the jocund Host of the above Hotel. May his side, and lifting his head. "Are you shadow increase."

Thornton shook his head, and said no.—
But he had another plan which he said would be better. He had been planning by his side, and lifting his head. "Are you shadow increase."

Thornton shook his head, and said no.—
But he had another plan which he said would be better. He had been planning by his side, and lifting his head. "Are you shadow increase."

Thornton shook his head, and said no.—
But he had another plan which he said would be better. He had been planning by his side, and lifting his head. "Are you bally hurt?"

Sejentific American office, New York.

Thornton shook his head, and said no.—
But he had another plan which he said said no.—
But he had another plan which he said would be better. He had been planning by his side, and lifting his head. "Are you bally hurt?"

Sejentific American office, New York.

Sejentific American office, New York.

Thornton shook his head, and said no.—
But he had another plan which he said would be better. He had been planning by his side, and lifting his head. "Are you ball to plung into the surgliggide and seek a watery grave, when his give liggide and seek a watery grave, when his give liggide and seek a watery grave, when his bead and seel and seem on board the ship.

But he had another plan which he said to blue seem and said no.—
But he had another plan which he said to be seem and said no.—
But he had another plan which he said to be seem and said no.—
But he had another plan which he said to be seem and said no.—
But he had another plan which he said to be seem and said no.—
But he had another plan which he said to plung into the surgliggide and seek a watery grave, when his dead, and said no.—
But he had another plan which he said to be seem and said no.—
But he had another plan which he said to be seem and said no.—
But he had another plan which he said to be seem and said no.—
But he had another plan which he said to be se

WOLFGANG:

THE WRECKER'S BEACON. CHAPTER I.

BEFORE THE GALL. and bound to Copenhagen, had entered the I was leaving my very life. two days behind.

"What d've think of this, Capt of to hatch wind from; but ste'll have it right a sad and heavy hear! " know how to make things blue."

said Griffin "Aye," answered the captain with almost and added, in a touching tone,- a shudder, "I feel at in my bones." A Democratic clerk from Indiana, to the In the meantime, Captain Lester had what I have suffered—tongue cannot tell selvance was a tall, muscular man; with a somest and best family paper in the countries office, who superseded one been watching the sea and sky as before, it, nor can pen write it. That blow did gaunt, heavy frame; somewhere about ifof Douglas's friends, was recently discharg and he fancied that the signs of the storm break my heart-broke it in the rending of my or fifty-five years of age; and habited in ed by a high moral tone. Its present cired, with $1,700, the proceeds of an indors- were growing more and more palpable or its tenderest cords, and in the crusbing of a garb of blue cloth, cut into a freck, or culation is over four hundred thousand ed draft sent that office for examination, ery moment. The sun was going down in all its earthly hopes!-Do you believe in which was secured at the waist by a copies, which is the best evidence we can which he made payable to his own order. a thick bank, giving to the whole western dresms?" like openings, through the fiery cloud. den manner in which it was put. looking upon a fearful blackness behind." at least a copy of this work, and ask his ed-well, it was nowhere. The instru- character for himself by his course the Danville Ledger, a recently held Dem- towards the point where the sun was so vividly as within the past three or four he had fairly made out the party, they were watching those dark places."

o'clock came, and the first watch was set, me to save her. Of course what followed This just sentence was addressed to which means that the safest walking is in the men of the last dog-watch left their me much: I thought I saw he, standing not "My name is Lester. And now, to be hatches now, while there is nothing else her then, with my eyes open, as I have of Men call me Ryan Wolfgaug."

other day. below, for they could see and feel; and the men crowding forward. IJ Hon. Isaac Blackford, died at Wash they were not wholly ignorant of what was "What is it?" Lester asked. and fro by the lazy swells of the sea.

you feel that?-Ha!-and that?"

roar which followed, and other bodies These things were settled. giant when he came in his might.

When the morning came the scene was one thing further was discovered. ready to whelm and engulf the frail bark tions and so he told his men. The sky wore a "BREAKERS! BREAKERS!"

men had been swept away by the storm, on swept the devoted ship.

he sat down to examine it. He was thus it mean?" "If you suppose, either, that the people following gentlemen were elected Directors, engaged when Mr. Griffin came down; but Maurice Lester did not answer; but an human bones strewn around the cavern, ent Sermons," upon their first appearance. he did not look up until he had finished old, weather-beaten sailor, who stood at but he could not clearly make them out in created a sensation, and were undoubted

"How is it ?" the mate asked, as he saw dangers in the face, answered for him: his commander lay down the dividers. The Board was organized by the election I find that we have but little more sen firin' the gun, sir. That light was put near what seemed the end of the cave, and acteristics of undoubted merit, if not, in room left. The course we have made there to lend poor Jack to his death that making a sign to his followers, they clapsince we wore, has been, as near as I can the coast sharks might pick his bones!"

ped manacles on the wrists and ankles of popularity than the "Candle Lectures," or since we were, has been, as near as I can the coast sharks might pick his bones!" dent; Chas. Wood, Secretary ; Ino. Scott, calculate, north-west-by west, so that we "Breakers! Kocks! - On the starboard must have been driving towards the coast | bow! -- No! -- On the larboard! - Pour! of Northumberland I think we have plen. But it was too late for mortal help. The Carstal Ice - The past week has been ty of room to stand on until midnight; - ship had met her doom. She went upon but we cannot stand on much louger. If the rocks with a crash that sounded high know not what we shall do. The Captain started up from his chair. the cabin, but at that moment a heavy sea caught the ship and gave her a pitch forward, which caused him to catch his seat gangway when the ship struck, having clear that we could read common writing as quickly as possible. As soon as the started aft to look to the holm. The shock flood had gone from the deck, and the ves- threw him upon his back, and he tried to sel bad struggled up from the shock, he get up; but ere he could regain his feet in. looked into his companion's face, and the flood of mad waters came surging over mind more than you know; and I am anx. that it hurled him as the gale hurls a feath-I. O. O. F .- The following officers were lous to con municate it, too. I must tell it er-that his head was hart-that his body now, for I have a strange foreboding of was tossed and bruised-and then the lamp coming ill. Something is to happen that of his consciousness went out. When he will bear great calamity to some of us. I came to himself it was daylight, and the am not creaking-I am only reading what rays of the sun were beaming above him the unseen has written in my soul. How. At first he did not attempt to move, any ever, you shall hear my story. You have further than simply to assure himself that heard that my parents were both lost at he was really alive and sensible; but of vegetation and flowers.

"Yes," said the mate.

craft. I was at school then, in Troy; and spar, over a low part of one of the rocks. me command of a ship.

but even when I first knew her-and she ones, and one of them was David Griffin, cled feet peaceful portion of the audience escaped cateers to the wants of his numerous a woman in intellect and grace, though a officer's side, and raised the head; but it was not then more than fourteen -she was his chief mate. He kneeled down by the Soon (as it seemed to the captive) the child to simplicity of love and confidence. was cold and lifeless and the skull was rock. He felt its moistore upon his feet. No city in the West is so well supplied Mr. Thornton did not object to my suit, so broken! Gently he laid it back upon the And still it rose-slowly but relentlessly it I loved her with all my soul, and was sand, and then moved on again. And he rose higher-higher; and as it rose, the blessed to know that she loved me in re saw more dead men also. Could it be pos- rats climbed up his limbs for safety. It turn. It had been arranged that we should sible that he had been the only one left was in vain that he brushed them off with Jan. 4th, at 7 o'clock. It is desirable that be married when she was twenty years old alive? LT "I may be asked," exclaimed ! enry | -that had been our plan for more than two Ha!-wait-what is this? It moves, is turned. They clambered up his back-to be in attendance, as business of much imthat the South would regard Scott's nomination as worse than Seward's. Cerwin promptly replied, "I think so, too; he is a fighting man."

If "I may be asked, "exclaimed lienty coincided the present Addition at Washington, one would think promptly replied, "I think so, too; he is a fighting man."

If "I may be asked, "exclaimed lienty coincided the present Addition at Washington, one would think the South would regard Scott's nomination as worse than Seward's. Cerwin promptly replied, "I think so, too; he is a fighting man."

If "I may be asked, "exclaimed lienty class to the counts of the time that the South would consent to a ship feel to the count of the Union. I answer, Nev. I market overlly by fightered fossils and ministration, and gave in his adhesion to the Republicans.

If There have been a great many cases of a much importance will be brought before them.

If There have been a great many cases of much importance will be brought before them.

If There have been a great many cases of much importance in this Union saving business? After this hand as the count in the sum of the time. It is the left would consent to a ship feel to the country, as a persocratic politician in Obey, Illiance as a p to be married, and all three come home to to Dick. The good ship Pathfinder, of New York, with Carrie, and when I left her I felt that Who has done you harm!"

North Sez; having left the Straits of Dover .. "Well," continued Lester, wiping his struggling for breath. eyes, "I went to Copenhagen. I waited a "Seen whom? What do you mean?" The commander of the ship was a young, month-then I heard that the American demanded Lester, eagerly. man, not over eight and twenty, and his ship, White Foun, with William Thorn Dick started up to his elbow, and gazed fierce struggles for a perch of safety from name was Maurice Lester. He stood by ton and daughter on board, had touched around; but he seemed to find nothing for the advancing tide, which had now nearly the taffrail, gazing off upon the horizon to at Dover, and that all were safe and well which he was looking, and he sant back reached our hero's shoulders. the eastward, ever and anon raising his when she left. I waited another week, again. find he not made this effort he The above is all of this story that will about over for the season. In a few days hand above his head to feel if there was and then I crossed over to Hamburg; but I reight have speken further, but the act of be published in our columns. We give this any wind stirring, and as often casting his could learn nothing there. Next I went rising had exhausted him, and the last as a sample. The continuation of it from eye aloft to see how the canvass hung. As to London and there I learned enough to grain of strength was leaving him he stood thus his mate approached, and assure methat the ship hadbeen lostly On the "What do you mean?" cried Lesier, as in the New York Ledger, the great family second day after she left Dorer a severe he saw that the poor fellow was sinking. paper, to which the most popular writers storm had erisen, and several vessels had " Has mybo to harmed you?" "I think we're in for a storm, sir," the been lost. I sent my ship home in charge the managed to raise his hand to his master replied. "And I tell you what it of the mate, and spent four months in search mend -to a point above the left ear-and, is, Griffin," he added, stier sweeping the ing after the lost ones; but I could gain not on he ded so, he whisperes, horizon again with his eye, "when it comes trace of them. Not even a piece of the "Look out-they asked for the capt'n it will be an earnest one. None of your wreck could I find-not a spark of the ship That's where they struck!" He tried to continuation of the story from where it broad Ocean puffs, with cuthing but water nor of our of its crew! I came home with speak further, but his voice failed him.

fresh from some of those places where they . Maurice Lester stopped a few moments, started to his feet and gazed around. Who Ledger will mail you acopy if you will and bowed his head upon his hands, for had killed his men! "Then you think we'll have a hard out?" his feelings had almost overcome him. In The captain was disturbed in his media little while, however, he honed up again, tation by the sound of voices not far off, $2 a year, or two copies for $5. Address horizon a dull, purplish-red, thoody hac. The mate started, not so much at the Maurice Lester was startled when he bewith here and there spots of a darker tinge, character of the queston, as from the sud- held the stalwart leader and his three ruf-

"Aye, returned Griffin, "I have been she is not -she has appeared to me repeat "Hallo," the leader cried, as he saw our Seven o'clock came and went. Eight you now hear mine, and she called out for something. Say, who are ve?" "Don't go below," said the captain, as was mere fancy, though even that affected Maurice, who quickly answered:

in his speech by the cry of "Ligar-no!"

heard the dull moaning which came over sonal experience, as well as from the chart restrained power he knew himself to be.

the dark waters. So other ears heard the there was a snug barbor, of easy entrance. When the wrecker chief had elicited all quivered beneath the shock of the storm. As soon as it had been determined where what a rich cargo the vessel was freighted, proper conduct, but simply obnexious the light was, Captain Lester made all pos and that she had $40,000 in specie on opinions Aye-the storm had come. It came sible haste to determine his course of ac- board, he smiled grimly, and remarked to with wind and rain, and with an angry tion. Had the thing been practicable, he one of his confederates that she would per. They were living at Berea, where they heaving of the sea. It came with a dark- would have laid his ship to; but that could haps be richer prize even than the White bad established schools, and made great ness like Erebus, and with the voice of not be done. No one even gave it a seri. Faun had been a few years before. The improvements. Rev. John G. Fee, widely thunder. The gale continued to increase our thought. So it was determined that mention of the name of the ill fated ship known as an anti-slavery Kentuckian, was in fury as the long night pas ed away.— the ship should stand on, at least till some in which Carrie Thornton and her father of awful grandenr. The wind was howling At half past twelve the gale had moder shock that he nearly fell to the earth. He large portion of them were native Ken with terrific fury; and the broad sea was nted considerably. The light was now to grew deadly pale, and his frame quivered tuckians. We have no comment to make lashed into huge mounts us, that foamed, be seen very plainly whenever the ship convulsively.

"Joy to THE House or Lingue !- Twin that struggled within the demon grasp. "At all events," said the former, "we can doctor him." When Captain Lester had observed the have no choice but to stand on, at least-" signs of the morning, he leared that the He was it terepted by a cry from the bows this last remark, and the peculiar empha-ent Sermons of Dow, Jr." first commenced and so he told his men. The sky wore a bue of horror, and rain was now driving down, mingling with the lashing sea. At very few moments he was satisfied that the he was partly forced and partly carried tor, and for some years past, continued in warning had not been false one; for he along after Wolfgang, who strode rapidly the Golden Era, of this city, died last even-INDEPENDENT INISHMEN. -- A few days ago At length night shut in again, and not could not only hear the awful roar of the on for nearly ball an hour. He could the breaking seas, but he fancied that he could think only of the White Fauen that had been the about 7 o'clock. Its slied in poverty Consolly, Mayor of Lafayette to sundry the storm! The frightful howling of the white form as it wrecked on that coast, and of his beloved and almost alone. But for the kindly of tempest seemed rather to have increased flew high in the air. As quickly as possi- Carrie who had, perhaps, in company with fices of a German woman, he would have Irish Democrats of Indianapelia, but was then abated. The men gathered upon the ble the topsail was taken off, and the anchithose same men, trod the same path he was died with no friendly eye to witness his now treading. What had been her fate? gathered as near to the light of the binna- like lightning. Snap went the starboard Those thoughts filled him with unuttern occupied, accordance that he was very The assertions of Messrs. Hunt and ThayThe assertions of Messrs. Hunt and Thayreaders may judge of the relative merits of some comfort. But not all were there.— but it could not held. The cubic parted as ter's edge; and soon coming to the mouth

Jr." was beyond the reach of medicine. er might be accepted by many as conclu- the letters we give them both to smother No-not sil! Four stout, truchearted though it had been a hempen string, and o' a care he entered it, followed by the No conning prescription, no pill nor com-

Near a score were left; but how many "In heaven's name!" gasped Griffin, The bottom of the cave sloped upward Mississippi, addressing the mass meeting 1.7 At the Annual Meeting of the stock At nine o'clock Captain Lester went be- is still burning as brightly as ever-at then became almost level. The captive of death!

the wheel, and who had looked a thousand the dim light. He also noticed that the bot- ly the instigators of many series of artic-"It's a Wrecken's Bracon! I've seen had recently been covered with water .- les by other authors, of a half serious, half "I have been making a reckening, and such things afore. There ain't no use in The wrecker chieftian stopped, at last, ludicrous character. They possessed char-

the gale does not abate by that time I above the roar of the elements.

CHAPTER II.

said, in a voice made tremulous by dreper the bark, and he was thrown-he knew not "Griffin, I have sometning upon my -that it caught him in its giant graspsought to recall the events of the past, which he did, very clearly, up to the time could go no farther. After this he raised himself upon his elbow, and tried to gaze "Ave-so it was a boy then - shout him. He found himself upon a bed They were on their way to Copenhagen, of sand, between two immense rocks. He as we should be now. My father com- had been landed there in that deep nook, Clara Jane. She was named for my a little while he rose to his feet, and man. periah by drowning mother; and she was a staunch, noble aged to crawl up, by the aid of a stranded when I knew that my parents were dead After seeing all that was to be observed spot on which Maurice stood. Slowly fol-I was well nigh mad with grief. I fancied from this point, he moved on towards NEW YEAR'S DIRNER .- We could not re- then, in my first hours of orphanage, that where he thought he should soonest find reached his feet my heart would break; and I think such an open beach, for he felt faint and sick, would have been the case if they had kept and he wished to find help as soon as pos-And I prospered -- prospered so well that, and lacerated, he finally reached an open when I was twenty years old, they gave space among the rocks, where many pieces "The man who award the ship which I he found the bodies of three of his men.

pany with him and he said he would take swered, in a weakening voice. "They've a struggle, and a piercing shrick which the next ship, and bring Carrie out with killed Tom. Ain't he dead?"

him, and we should be married there. I It was the body of stout Tom Bricket He could not be mistaken; it was Carrie's finally consented to take the new ship, and that lay close by, and when the captain voice. Again he heard it, but now in tones. Mr. Thornton, with his daughter, was to had made himself sure that there was no of entresty. Oh, it was her voice. She meet me in Copenhagen, and there we were particle of life in it, he reported the same was not dead! She lived and was near gether. The evening before I sailed I speak, "But," he added, "what do you mean? ed, "Carrie! Carrie! Carrie!

What could this mean? Maurice Lester and upon turning he beheld four men com your letters to Robert Bonner, publisher "Ah, my dear friend, you do not know ing up from the water. He who came in 48 Ann street, New York. It is the hand-broad pistol belt. fianly companions; and, considering all "Well," said Lester, in a lower tone, "I the circumstances, it is no wonder that he "Do you see how strangely it looks off have had a dream repeated many times, was startled. However, he had not much persons, were ordered out of Madison there?" said the captain, raising his finger but never has it come to me so directly and opportunity for reflection, for, by the time edly in a dream, and calls upon me to save here, "here we have another." And, as he on Saturday. The Gazette thus describes And others noticed the same thing, and her! To-night, as I stood all alone by the came up, he added: "And I guess we've thus describes their appearaces: mizzin rigging, trying to peer plainly as found a live one, too-one that knows a flaming prefix to his name as "Hon." have been slippery places, where wicked be guilty of using the rowdy ex have been slippery places, where wicked hatches now, while there is nothing else har then with my over the with the stretched imploringly towards me-saw "Well, I guess you've heard it before.

"Yes. That is my name." The men had had no thoughts of going from the deck. They hurried up and found Then Wolfgang was not a myth after all. That mysterious wrecker, whose name was a source of terror to honest sailors, was a the hatches with thick tarpaulins; and ker. "Here, sir, -just stand here. Now Maurice gazed upon him with wonder; without fear, thou h ignorant of what it when this was done those who had no par- turn you eye about four points upon the and, as he gazed, he felt that he looked might bring forth. They are from the ticular station collected about the wheel. larboard bow. Wait, now, till she rises - upon a fiend incarnate. He had often You may be thankful that we have made Judes of the Supreme Court of this State, Another hour passed away-and another. Ha-there!- there?- See!-Did you see it, heard of the pirate wrecker, and so dark property has been left behind them, as in and mystic had been the tale which the thing, with the ropes, and blocks, and sails, be a light upon the shore; but it was a great he had been inclined to believe that I'm rattling and flapping as she was swayed to way off. He watched until he had seen it that the whole theme was a fabrication .- The expulsion of this band of exiles several times, and then he remarked to his Now, however, he had no more doubt, for was ordered by a committee of sixty-four "What does it mean?" cried Griffin, as mate that it must be a light house. The the man before him looked as dark and slaveholders appointed by a public meet light was bold and distinct, and evidently bloody as were any of the pictures he had "Hark!" said the captain, almost in at a considerable height above the level of beard drawn of him upon the forecastle. stantly. "I guess you'll soon see. Did the ses; for, had it not been so, it could not But our hero was not allowed much time committee, though they acted as cour have been seen at that distance. After a for reflection. Wolfgang plied him with toously as possibly, insisted that the "sus of spray; or, perhaps it was a spit of rain. was had to the chart of the Northumber- gave straightforward auswers; well-know-At all events, the puff was felt; and the land coast, it was decided that this light log that evasion would serve no practical ertp, and go out of the State. The exiles drops of water fell upon other checks than must be upon Dorton Point. To the north purpose, and hoping by his frankness to petitioned Gov. McCoffin against such an 3's Engine house and was a pleasant af- Maurice Lester's; and other ears than his of Dorton, as the captain knew from per- propitiate the merciless fiend in whose un- ou rage, but he advised them to leave .-- the information he could, and learned with mittee to be no violation of law, no imhad been lost, gave Maurice Lester such a an active assistant in this enterprise. A and tumbled, and leaped along over the rose, and the captain and his officers felt "What's the matter ?" said Wolfgang - on this specimen of Kentucky toleration. bosom of the deep, seeming every moment sure that they were right in their calcula- "You don't seem to have much strength left !- Bring him along, boys, where we sterm would continue through the day, that made every soul start with herror: sis laid upon the word "doctor," struck a many years ago in the Sunday Mercury of tom of the cave was very wet, as though it

"you must remain in this place for a short ment you set foot outside the cave. Thus speaking, the chieftain and his fol Maurice Lester was near the starbuard tonishment. As they passed from the himself to an early and melancholy end. mouth of the cave, their feet were wet by the rising waves. The tide was fast coming ed to the dim light, and became satisfied a faint light struggled, and on going un lahed, too, many telling moral, which derneath it, he thought he smelt the odor that the water was creeping up the sloping the sad memorials of other hapless price-

The vermin fled before them to the elevated ore for all his better qualities. lowing, the incoming water at length of the wall, and underneath the aperture she is ready to go out of the Union, and is before speken of, was a large piece of rock, only waiting for a Southern confederacy some four feet high, that might have fallen There is nothing like spunk. She reminds from above. To this Maurice hastened as us of a little bantam cock we have. He is his manacles would permit. After some the nicest little fellow about the premises. exertion he succeeded in climbing to the Freey ody likes him, and everybody pets of the wreck had been lodged, and where top of it, and stood erect, his head within him. But let anybody look at him, and a few inches of the roof of the cavero ... he cocks his eye, marches up, drops his But he was not allowed to occupy this wing, and flies at you with all the little He had a daughter named Carrie-one of two of them being clasped in each other's retreat alone As the water began to circle spunk his little body can muster. No mat round its base, the rate also sought refuge ter whether it is buil, or dog, or man, he on it in great numbers, and in vain did is ready for a fight. So be marches round Maurice try to dislodge them with his mans. the Knight Errant of chickenry, ready to > water came ripoling over the top of the his fettered hands. They instantly re- all the members of this Association should him! Gathering all his strength be shout-

A dead silence followed, broken only by "Haven't you seen 'em?" the man asked, the fearful murmurs of the still rising waters, and the splash of the rats as they fell from the wretched captive's head and shoulders, only to return again, in their where it leaves off here can be found only in the country contribute, and which is for sale at all the stores throughout the city and country, where papers are sold. Remember and ask for the New York Ledger leaves off here If you cannot get a copy at any book store, the publisher of the sond him five cents in a letter. The Ledger ist mailed to subscribers at give of its merits

More Freedom of Opinion. Twelve families, embracing thirty-nine county, Ky., last week on account of their "abolition" opinions. They came to Cincinnati, and were at the Dennison House

Calling on the party at their rooms at the Dennison House, we found them quietly seated together. Among their number were seven or eight young men, from eighseen to thirty years of age, about an equal number of ladies, several children, two or three of whom were babes in arms, and Mr. John Smith, a native of Kentucky, a patriarch 'of nearly' four score, and his equally aged wife. They seemed neither joyous nor disconsolate. Believing they had acted in accordance with the laws of religion and humanity, they were ready to suffer all things, and awaited the future humble walks of life, and the most of their their hurried departure, they had hardly ing of the citizens of the county. The

The Last Sermon Preached-Dow

Jr., to Dond. The sinister glance which accompanied Elbridge Gerry Page, author of the 'Patthree ruffians who had charge of our hero, pound could arrest the title of life which "what does this mean ! See! The light from its entrance for some distance, and was fast ching away into the great ocean Sea, and having spread it upon the table, rocks directly under our bows! What can to be) frequently hit his feet against what he sat down to examine it. He was thus it mean?"

he thought, with a chill of horror, were not Serious." upon their first appragance. Maurice before he had time to note their popularity than the "Candle Lectures," or the letters of "Jack Downing." But be-"Now, Captain Lester," said Wolfgang, sides those "Sermons," Dow, jun , was the season. You are perfectly safe here .- Si- auther of much other matter which floated lence! Say not a word! If you attempt into the great river of current literature to leave this spot, you will be slain the mo- He possessed ability which should have ensued him a competency, if not a forture lowers silently but rapidly withdrew, But he had a weakness which has brought leaving Maurice nearly stupified with as his "Sermons" to a completion at last, and Genius, undirected by steadiness of purpose and high aims and aspirations, is but After a short time, the captive looked steam without a balance wheel. Flashing shout him with eyes somewhat accustom- like a meteer, its light dazzels, draws a that what he had supposed to be human bright line of light seroes the heavens and bones were really such. There were many sinks in darkness, leaving perhaps a fading of them. And moving among them were ribbon of dyin r giary to endure for a mo the cavers, in some places, was but a few ment and then disappear forever. Pont feet above his head, and in one place he Fellow! He has furnished his queta of discovered a small aperture, through which amusement to the million. He has fornthough eccentric in expression, was full of On turning, from the contemplation of wisdom, observation and knowledge of the this sperture, towards the mouth of the world. But he will write no more. He "And perhaps you knew that they were when his ship struck upon the rocks—he cave, Captain Lester observed, with slarm, will stand no more at the case—his matter bottom. What if it should fill the cavern? is distributed, his form broken up. Rust Ah! now he could account for the presence gathers on his graphic pen, and his inkthere of those bumin bones! They were stand has gone dry. His last text is taken. manded the ship-she was called the and the tide had gone out and left him. In ners who had been left in the cave to his last sermon presched. Over his last service let our benedictions be uttered with Slowly but surely the waters crept along. forgiveness for his weakness and due hon-

> Sours Carotina - This gallant little At the end of the cave, within a few feet State again aunounces to the world that rescue cock-a doodledom from all invaders.

-Cia Gascette AT A meeting of the stockholders of the Terre Haute Gymnasium will be held at their building, on Wednesday evening.